

Joint Development Foundation Projects, LLC

ALLIANCE FOR OPEN MEDIA PROMOTER AGREEMENT

Background

The Joint Development Foundation and its subsidiaries are dedicated to helping standards, specification, source code, and related Projects start quickly and operate efficiently. Joint Development Foundation Projects are ideal for long term standards, specification and source code projects or as a place to do incubation Projects before taking those projects to larger organizations.

By using established Joint Development Foundation legal agreements, groups can establish Projects quickly and with minimal legal expense. By operating under the Joint Development Foundation's legal umbrella, Projects can enjoy the benefits of Joint Development Foundation's existing legal agreements, choice of intellectual property policies, non-profit status, and corporate structure. This enables Projects to more easily establish themselves, collect funds, issue press releases in the Project's name, develop liaison relationships, and hold copyrights, all without negotiating custom agreements and new corporate organizations.

The Joint Development Foundation operates under a freemium-type model, where projects can be established and operated without paying anything. Projects can provide their own infrastructure (websites, email reflectors, conference organization, etc.), or can work with Joint Development Foundation approved vendors to provide these types of services if they wish.

Promoter Agreement

This Promoter Agreement is used to join an existing Joint Development Foundation Project at the Promoter level, which allows Promoters to participate in the specified Working Group.

ALLIANCE FOR OPEN MEDIA PROMOTER AGREEMENT

This Promoter Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into between the Joint Development Foundation Projects, LLC, Alliance for Open Media Series (“Alliance for Open Media”) and the Promoter.

1. Project Name. Alliance for Open Media.
2. Working Groups. Select those groups you wish to join in the Working Group Charter.
3. Fees. See Exhibit A – Fee Schedule below. Fees are subject to change during subsequent terms upon at least 90 days’ notice prior to expiration of the then current term. There is no additional fee to join additional Working Groups.
4. Intellectual Property. Promoters agree to the intellectual property terms as set forth in the applicable Appendix D of the Applicable Working Group Charter. A Promoter may not issue Exclusion Notices for any material that has been included in a Draft Deliverable or Final Deliverable that has been available to Promoter for more than 45 days.
5. Decision Making.
 - 5.1. Voting. The Working Group will endeavor to make all decisions by consensus. Where the Working Group cannot reach consensus with respect to a particular decision to be made, the Working Group will make that decision by a Supermajority Vote of the Working Group Participants.
 - 5.2. Notifications and Electronic Voting. The Executive Director is responsible for issuing all notifications of meetings and votes of the Members and each Working Group chair is responsible for issuing all notifications of meetings and votes of the Working Group for which it is the chair, in each case subject to the following minimum criteria: (i) in-person meetings require at least 30 days prior written notice, (ii) teleconference meetings require at least 7 days prior written notice (this requirement only applies to the notification of the first meeting of automatically recurring teleconference meetings), (iii) electronic votes require no advance notice but must be made pursuant to a clear and unambiguous ballot with only “yes” and “no” options, and the voting must remain open for no less than 7 days. These notification requirements with respect to the Project or that particular Working Group may be overridden upon unanimous consent of all Members or all applicable Working Group Participants that have attended and participated in at least 50% of the last 4 meetings of the Project or Particular Working Group.
6. Deliverable Development Process.
